

Functional Requirements:

The feature will allow students to request course offerings for future semesters.

The feature will allow students to request computer science courses that were offered before

The feature will allow students to request new computer science courses that are not currently offered

The feature will optionally allow the student to describe a new course.

The feature will allow students to make more than one request.

The feature must provide advisers with information about student desires for future course offerings